Introduction

This devotional journal and planner has illustrations to inspire and bless you and has blank space for you to use creatively.

Here are some suggestions.

- * Note a verse or phrase a day from your devotional reading.
- * Plan ahead. Note upcoming events in the relevant week.
- * Plan in pencil! You may need to change some plans.
- * Plan for others. You may want to bless others in many ways.
- * Note family birthdays, anniversaries or special events.
- * Write, print, or draw as you organize or plan.
- * Remind yourself of significant events or opportunities.
- * Add your own illustrations or notes.
- * Just enjoy it as it is for devotional reflection.

Illustrations include some significant dates and also follow a pattern of one Bible book a month from the Gospels, the Acts, and Psalms beginning with Matthew in January and July. You could read a chapter a day beginning with chapter 1 on the first of each month.

Images are from public domain sites including my Facebook albums as in Annual Journal <https://www.facebook.com/geoff.waugh1/> which has comments on each image. I am happy to acknowledge or delete any copyright images gathered from sites such as Facebook. .
